From the Captain's Galley

Again we invite all Sir Knights, Ladies and family members to enjoy our pre meeting dinner this month. This month we will be serving brazed chicken breasts with gravy and mashed potatoes. Thanks to all that provide the wonderful variety of side dishes.

For the ladies:

Last month the wives enjoyed a delightful bit of chatting and welcomed a few new gals. Special thanks goes to Carrie Ebert for bringing her laminator. The Knights' membership cards can now withstand more wear and tear.

This month we hope that many wives join us for dinner and stay for our social gathering. We will be learning how to make baby blankets. Anyone who is interested should bring a yard and a half of fleece in a baby print and a yard and a half of solid color fleece in a coordinating color. Please bring sharp scissors and a yardstick or solid straight edge as well.

This is an optional activity. There also will be a game or two which promise to be quite entertaining!

March 2010

From the `Days of Devotion by Pope John XXIII

In the General Audience of 25 October, 1959 Pope John spoke of the great prayer; "Our Father." This is the second of the series about the prayer the `Our Father'

THY KINGDOM COME

When we speak of the kingdom of God we must not confuse it with political constructions based on human power, such as were frequently found in past ages and still appear here and there today, expressions of human and material dominations.

We pray for the kingdom shall come (cf. Matt 6.10) in the sense in which Christ conceived it, and as the liturgy sings of it in one of the church's finest outpourings of her official prayer; "the kingdom of truth and light," a "kingdom of holiness and grace", a "kingdom of justice, love, and peace." (Preface, Feast of Christ the King.)

These beloved and mysterious expressions which make clear the choice that is set before all individuals and social communities, families, nations and the whole world.

So we are either to walk with Christ, every one of us bearing his cross, light or burdensome as it may be, or to go on without him, lost in uncertainty, danger and disorder, towards universal ruin.

Next month: "THY WILL BE DONE"
