Culture of Life: Heartbeat Bill

Supporting Life From Conception Until Natural Death

The Ohio legislature recently passed the Heartbeat Bill and Governor DeWine signed it into law. Basically, the bill forbids abortion after a baby's heartbeat can be detected, usually around 6 weeks of gestation. Of course, Planned Parenthood and the ACLU immediately challenged the bill in court. As of this writing the courts have not ruled on this challenge, but PP and ACLU will undoubtedly find a liberal judge to halt enforcement of the new law until a higher court can rule.

In light of this, I thought you might be interested in some facts about the development of an unborn baby:

- Day 1: Fertilization: all human chromosomes are present, and a unique life begins.
- Day 6: The embryo begins implanting in the uterus.
- Day 22: The heart begins to beat with the child's own blood, often with a different blood type than the mother's.
- Week 6: Brain waves are detectable. The mouth and lips are present, and fingers are forming.
- Week 7: Eyelids and toes form. The baby now has a distinct nose and is kicking and swimming.
- Week 8: Every organ is in place; bones and fingerprints begin to form.
- Weeks 9/10: Teeth begin to form, fingernails develop; baby can turn head and frown.
- Week 11: Baby can grasp object placed in hand.
- Week 17: Baby can have dream (REM) sleep.

As you can see, the baby is quite developed much earlier than most people assume. Note that the heart begins to beat around week 3 but is not normally detected until about week 6, which is when the Heartbeat Bill prohibits aborting the baby. The traits described above are scientific facts and no matter how PP and other abortion proponents spin it, the baby is a unique human being from conception on day 1.

On another note, if you want to see a truly moving faith-based movie, go to see Breakthrough while it is still in the theaters. I saw it yesterday and it is a great film. It is the true story of a 14 year old boy who falls through the ice of a lake and is given up for dead until his mother's intense faith and prayers bring him back to life. Definitely a movie worth seeing!
